

INTERNATIONAL HOT ROD ASSOCIATION AUSTRALIA

Code of Conduct / Behaviour

Code of Conduct

In order to achieve and maintain its Core Values, IHRA Australia has a Code of Conduct which is a collection of statements that establish what IHRA Australia considers its members hold as an acceptable standard of behaviour and conduct.

These codes establish how IHRA Australia expects its members to behave.

Codes of conduct or behaviour provide a guide and basis of expectations and encourage commitment to ethical and professional behaviour and outline principles on which IHRA Australia are based.

- Be ethical, fair and honest in all their dealings with other people and IHRA Australia
- Treat all persons with respect and courtesy and have proper regard for their dignity, rights and obligations
- Always place the safety and welfare of children above other considerations
- Comply with IHRA Australia constitution, rules and policies including the Policy which takes precedence over any existing policy
- Operate within the rules and spirit of the sport
- Comply with all relevant Australian Laws (Federal and State), particularly anti-discrimination and child protection laws
- Be responsible and accountable for their conduct

Penalties

It is the responsibility of the IHRA licence holder driver or rider to ensure full compliance to the IHRA Australia Code of Conduct Policy, driver/rider are also responsible for the actions of their pit crew at all times and their compliance to the Code of Conduct whilst attending any IHRA Australia sanctioned facilities. It is important to note that in the event of a breach all parties issued with a wrist band will be held accountable and punishable under this policy resulting in competition and participation privileges suspended and possible disciplinary tribunal action commenced.